

MACS for MOMs TeleECHO™ Clinic

Specially designed for providers in maternal healthcare settings

Providing collaborative medical education through web-based didactic presentations and case-based learning

Join us every 2nd Tuesday of the month from 8 am to 9 am for presentations and discussions with Drs. Katrina Mark, Christopher Welsh, and Lorraine Milio.

To register: <https://bit.ly/36dsONS>

Who Should Participate?

- OB/GYNs, Certified Nurse Midwives, physicians, nurse practitioners, nurses and physician assistants working in maternal healthcare
- Clinical directors of maternal practices
- Counselors and other staff in maternal healthcare

Benefits

- Monthly case-based learning sessions
- Consultation with experts and your peers on how to manage challenging cases
- Focus on patient-centered care, harm reduction and best practices
- Free CMEs/CEUs

2022 Spring/Summer Maternal Health Curriculum

April 12th	Overview of MOUDs in Pregnancy presented by C. Welsh
May 10th	Initiation and Dosing of Buprenorphine presented by K. Mark
June 14th	Using the Right Words: Appropriate Language in Relation to Substance Use presented by Bethany Paula, PharmD
July 12th	Alcohol and Pregnancy presented by C. Welsh

1-855-337-MACS (6227)
macs.echo@som.umaryland.edu
www.macsformoms.org

